US 11286 NQF Level 5 8 Credits	Institute disciplinary action
US 11911 NQF Level 5 5 Credits	Manage individual careers

PURPOSE

It is the responsibility of all managers to plan, organise, lead and control the resources at their disposal, however managing human resources is the most challenging of all. As a result of their chosen field of technical expertise, most Line Managers are not equipped with the necessary skills and/or knowledge to manage their human resources effectively. This short course provides Line Managers with an overview of the HR function at operational level and equips learners with the basic skills required to manage their human resources.

OUTCOMES

By the end of this course you will have a working knowledge of:

- The human resource function and related employment legislation
- The talent acquisition process (your role in recruitment & selection)
- How to formulate KPA's and KPI's for your subordinates and manage their performance
- Dealing with under performers
- How to initiate disciplinary action and prepare for your role in a hearing
- Ways in which to manage talent, including a brief introduction to mentoring & coaching

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This programme is aimed at Line Managers from any field who would like to develop their Human Resource Management skills.
